the Pall Mall Gazette gives in a single paragraph the elements for a proper understanding of the Red movement in the French Capital. It is the work of the Socialist agitators, who obtain supporters among the more ignorant class of workingmen by promising them what no community and no Government on earth can give them—a division of property and a tently, it is sure to cure life of ease without labor. These agitators are not unknown among us, and they will be recognized by the ingeniously suggestive platitudes mentioned below as the programme of the club to which this man belonged, and the often-heard claims advanced by him in the conversa-

which follows: "And now, what do they want? was the question I asked myself as the last of the gang hobbled by me with his spoil. I turned to the sentinel who was guarding one end of the barricade, and inquired of him politely whether social liquidation was what he too was aiming at. Yes, that was it; he wanted the 'liquida-tion sociale'—the rich had everything and the poor nothing; the time was come for changing all that. He extracted from his pocket a greasy paper containing the programme of the club to which he belonged, and here is his programme: 'No more imposts, no more usury, no more misery. Work for all, property for all. What is the producer?' Nothing. What is the producer?' Nothing. all. What is the producer? Nothing. What ought he to be? Everything. What is the workman? Nothing. What ought he to be? Everything.' And what were your wages be-fore the war, citizen?' I asked. 'I worked in cabinet-making,' replied he, dolefully, "and I earned on an average five francs a day.' And you want more?' Yes: workmen and workdemand to have a share in the gains of our employers. But was your employer a very rich man? Oh, no! he got ruined. Then you are agitating for the privilege of sharing his losses! He looked at me, gave a shrug. employers. But was your employer a very rich man? Oh, no! he got ruined. Then you are agitating for the privilege of sharing his losses!' He looked at me, gave a shrug, and said I didn't seem to understand the principle. He would explain it more carefully.

of Henry Switzer, a young New Orleans clerk, by Dr. L. H. Everitt, of which the telegraph gave only a meagre and distorted account, seems to have been one of unusual atrocity. The Picayune says that the murderer, about the middle of January, addressed to Mrs. Switzer, middle of January, addressed to Mrs. Switzer, wife of the deceased, and then a recently married lady, an insulting letter, proposing to her an illicit interview. He had previously become acquainted with her, and upon one or two foracquainted with her, and upon one or two former occasions had approached her with improper overtures. These she indignantly repelled. Upon the receipt of this letter she gave it to her husband. Northern Pacific Railroad Co. appetite and sickness, bowels RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Susota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track-laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota.—Including its purchase of the St. Paul & Pacific Read, the Northern Pacific Company now has 415 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.

Having received the agency for the above in this section of the State, I respectfully request the public to call and examine the same. They are absolutely safe from breaking, and being coa-structed on the principle of Sir Humphrey Davy's safety lamp, cannot explode. Mr. W. H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Virginia, writes:

"I have used one of Perkins & House's Non-Explosive Kerosene Lamps for more than a month. Before trying it, I took it to pieces and saw that it was constructed on the principle of Davy's safety lamp, and that with proper use no flame could possibly find admission to the lamp, although it may be filled with explosive gas and lighted while in that condition. My use of it has confirmed my good opinion of the lamp, and I intend substituting it throughout my house for the dangerous lamp now in use. I consider the invention an important contribution to the safety of persons and property."

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which rain both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy offects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimnessof Sight, Lossof Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplat-

MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and ir prudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbited the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-time sense of shame or dread of discovery determined to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him. tion and respectability. can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from tion and respectability, can alone befriend him, sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignerant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, when by the une of that deally pairs at March 1985.
